

Wants, For Sale, Etc.

Advertisements and reading notices of all kinds placed in this column will be charged for at the rate of one cent per word for each separate insertion.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

It requires time to properly set advertisements, therefore The Citizen announces the following schedule.

Schedule—Copy for regular space advertisements for the Tuesday issue should be handed in the office no later than Monday morning at 9 o'clock and early on Saturday if possible.

Copy for Friday's paper should be in the office no later than Wednesday night—earlier than that if possible. We cannot guarantee the insertion of space advertising unless the above rules are complied with.

Cent-A-Word advertisements cannot be accepted after 2 p. m. on Mondays and Thursdays.

CABBAGE and Cauliflower plants for sale. Apply at home of Andrew Liebig, 307 High street, opposite Maple City Garage.

THE Greater Honesdale Board of Trade is daily receiving inquiries regarding places for summer guests. Any persons who wish to take boarders are requested to leave or send their names and their rate cards with the secretary, E. B. Callaway, Citizen office, Honesdale, Pa.

PURSE containing a sum of money found on Main street on Friday. Apply G. W. Decker, Grand Union Tea store.

STORE FOR RENT—Located on Main street. Apply Rowland, the Jeweler and Optician, opposite the postoffice.

MAKE A SPECIALTY to fit Big men, Fat men, Stout men, Slim men. Regular built men—in fact to fit the hard-to-fit and please the hard-to-suit. Luke Levy wants to see you. Foster Block, The Model Clothing Shop.

WANTED—A good home for three-year-old girl of good temper. Can be adopted if desired. Address, Francis Maloney, Honesdale, R. D. 4, care Francis Weeks.

FOUR or six desirable rooms to rent by June 22. Inquire at this office.

WANTED—Position as chauffeur. Call at or address The Citizen.

THREE-YEAR-OLD COLT—pure Ethel-bred strain—sorrel—broke single—good roadster—very gentle and of fine disposition. For sale. Address Jas. Cook, Honesdale, R. D. No. 2.

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Apply 114 Court street, Honesdale.

FOR RENT—Seven rooms and a bath in the Best Dodge house, down stairs, corner of Church and Seventh streets after June 1st. Enquire of C. E. Dodge, Honesdale.

FOR SALE—Elegant building lot on North Main street, near C. F. Bullock's residence. Ask Buy-U-A-Home Realty company about it.

HAVE you a house you want to rent, or a farm you want to sell? Tell our readers all about it—let the little ad let you.

GRADUATION gifts. Lots of 'em. Rowland, Quality Jeweler, opposite postoffice, Honesdale, Pa.

FOR GRADUATION gift books, fountain pens, purses, etc., go to Leine's.

TWELVE PAIRS OF WINDOW blinds 4 1/2 x 14 inches, practically as good as new, for sale cheap. Address for particulars, Lock Box 68, Honesdale.

ONE CENT a word is the price for these little ads, and they are business bringers. They "work while you sleep."

DON'T KEEP your money home. Bring it to the Farmers and Mechanics Bank, Honesdale, Pa., where it will draw interest.

BOOKLETS for advertising purposes designed and written on modern lines at reasonable prices. Address "Booklet Writer," Citizen office, Honesdale, Pa.

DAINTY perfumes, toilet water, writing paper, correspondence cards, etc., or graduation presents are found in large varieties at Leine's.

WHAT'S the use of fret and worry over senseless cares and strife? Use these ads in a hurry, let them smooth your path of life.

AGENTS WANTED—Either sex. Two fast sellers. Every house, automobile owner, and factory needs this article. The Progressive Company, Honesdale, Pa.

Honesdale and Greater Honesdale

—Vote for pave. The total indebtedness to the town will not exceed $14,000.

—The last day for paying in your mercantile tax to the county treasurer will be June 30. There are only a few more days left in which to pay it.

—Parties patronizing the Honesdale Free Library on Tuesday are requested to use the Court street entrance to the High school upon that day and evening owing to the stage platform being erected in front of the Church street entrance.

—In honor of her approaching marriage, Miss Jennie Abrams, was delightfully entertained by a number of friends on Thursday evening at Rocky Glen, Scranton. Miss Abrams formerly resided in Honesdale and is a sister of A. W. Abrams and Mrs. David Fisher of this place.

—Miss Marion Charlesworth delightfully entertained twelve young ladies Thursday evening at a variety power in honor of Miss Merle Eldred. Cards were played and prizes were won by Miss Eldred and Miss Schoell. The guest of honor received many pretty gifts including glass and silver. Refreshments were served.

—While engaged in plowing for Schimmell last Saturday afternoon a team of horses belonging to E. Burcher became frightened and ran away, dragging the plow behind them. The horses ran from their avenue to Main street to West street and thence to Park street, being stopped near the home of Conductor James Ward. The horses were severely cut and bruised and the plow coming in contact with them.

TELEPHONE your Want Advertisements for this department. Investment call at the office of the Bell and 101 on the Consolidated. "Talk, don't walk!"

LOOKING of quality. That is the Luke Levy way and don't forget—Luke Levy wants to see YOU.

NAPPY STYLES in straw hats at Bregstein Bros.

IF YOU are looking for a 10 per cent investment call at the office of the Buy-U-A-Home Realty company, Jadwin building.

SUMMER BOARDERS' ATTENTION! Souvenir Envelopes, Honesdale views, for sale at The Citizen office, over Jadwin's drug store, Main and Eight streets, 8 for 5c, or 10c per dozen.

GIFT BOOKS, all titles, hair brushes, clothes brushes and numerous other articles would make ideal presents for graduates. You will find them at Leine's.

THERE is only ONE Luke Levy, and he lives in Honesdale. Luke Levy wants to see YOU.

JUNE bride gifts. We'll help you. Come in and look at our stock. Rowland, the Jeweler, opposite postoffice.

WANTED to find another Luke Levy in all this wide wide world. Luke Levy wants to see YOU.

SUMMER SUITS for men, boys and youths at Bregstein Bros.

THROW AWAY your old Sprayer and get one of our Gould's Compressed Air Sprayers. Saves your time and your temper, and does BETTER work. Murray Co., Honesdale, Pa.

FOR SALE—Second hand cook stove, No 8, with reservoir and high shelf, oven, either coal or wood. Good as new for $12. Inquire at this office, or at James Cook, Hoadleys, Bell phone 321-32.

PYROX for Potatoes—Kills both the bugs and the blight. Murray Co., Honesdale, Pa.

GENT'S furnishings at Bregstein Bros. We keep the best.

FOR SALE—Gasoline Stove for summer use. Two burner and oven. Will sell cheap. Inquire over Ready Pay Store.

LEINE has a large and complete line of appropriate gifts for graduates.

RAY hand-painted China. Here and here only. Rowland, Quality Jeweler, opposite postoffice.

ENGLISH Rutabaga seeds at Clark & Bullock's.

FOR SALE—Six hens and a rooster for $5. Good for eating or laying. Fine healthy stock. Mrs. F. P. Woodward, Hoadleys.

IF YOU ARE LOOKING FOR an ideal place to build your home, consult Buy-U-A-Home Realty Company. Have you inspected Willow Park?

WEDDING rings a-plenty. Any size or style. Rowland, Quality Jeweler, opposite postoffice.

NOW IS THE TIME to stop flies. Screen doors and windows of all sizes at a good price, at G. Watta, dealer in Hardware.

DON'T FAIL TO GET a Twenty Payment or Endowment policy with the Electric Life Disability feature written by C. Bassett, agent for the F. M. L. Ins. Co. of Philadelphia.

FINEST optical room in this part of the State. Satisfaction guaranteed. Rowland, Quality Jeweler and Optician. Opposite new postoffice.

WHY THE YOURSELF any longer to a rent receipt? Own your home. See Buy-U-A-Home Realty Company, Jadwin building, Main street, Honesdale.

FOR SALE—Nice gentle colt over a year old, black. Inquire at Citizen office, or call on F. P. Woodward, Hoadleys.

ONE DOLLAR will open an account at the Farmers and Mechanics Bank. Courteous treatment to all.

MAKE YOUR MONEY WORK, then in older days you will not have to. The Farmers and Mechanics Bank can take care of you. Open a bank account with that institution to-day.

GIVE US your order for Champion Mower repairs. Clark & Bullock.

OLIVER TYPEWRITER FOR SALE—Good condition, used only a month. No. 5 model. Bargain for quick buyer. Address F. Citizen office, Honesdale, Pa.

ONE DOLLAR per month will get you protection if you are hurt or sick. W. P. Schenck, Honesdale, Pa.

THE WAYNE COUNTEAN, Frank P. Woodward's local literary monthly, is published in Honesdale with offices in the Jadwin building. Only 50 cents a year, and many say it is worth a dollar.

SALE BILLS, trespass notices on cloth, and printing of all kinds for the farmer is made a specialty at The Citizen printers.

NOTICE—The horseshoers of Honesdale and White Mills will observe Saturday half-holiday during July and August.

—Miss Clara Bergmann, aged sixteen years, will probably have to undergo an operation as the result of swallowing a pin on Friday. Dr. McConvill is attending her.

—George A. Stratlin, of Binghamton, and Miss Carrie D. Kimble, of Hollisterville, were married Saturday, June 14th, by the Rev. C. Mason Jones at his residence in Scranton.

—Quinton Murray, while cranking his father's automobile Thursday evening, preparatory to making a trip, fractured his right wrist. Dr. W. T. McConvill gave the case attention.

—Mrs. W. H. Swift received a telegram Monday afternoon from Miss Helen Bentley, Williamsport, Pa., announcing the death of her father, E. W. Bentley, which occurred Monday morning. Deceased was a brother-in-law of the former and W. J. Ward of this place and an uncle of Charles and Howard Bentley. The funeral will be held Wednesday in Williamsport. Mr. Ward left on the Erie afternoon train to attend the funeral.

—At a meeting of the directors of the Tri-County Fair association held in Uniondale recently it was decided to make arrangements for the best meet ever held on July 4. Three classes were made. For the first ones 2:16 class was framed with a purse of $100. Those not fortunate enough to come under the wire in the above class may be suited with the 2:22 class and a purse of $75. For beginners a slow pace is set, only 2:40 with a purse of 50. A keen interest is felt in the first two races and some of the best horses in this section of the state will go at the second of the bell.

—A number of Honesdale automobilists visited Liberty, N. Y., Sunday to inspect the ruins of Friday's fire.

—A marriage license was issued on Saturday to Benjamin F. Brink, of Audell, and Miss Pearl E. Brown, of Paupack.

—Flag Day was generally observed on Saturday by the business houses and private properties, by displaying the stary banner to the breeze.

—The total bond issue of $69,000 for Main street pave will all be paid back except $14,000, which amount will only be the town's indebtedness. If you are a Progressive, vote for pave.

—A number of passengers were out bright and early to take the 7:10 Erie train Monday morning, it being the new leaving time for the New York train. The train will run on this schedule until October 1st, two weeks longer than last season.

—Among the Wayne county people to attend the Blackens-Poust wedding at Scranton last week, were: Mrs. Margaret Bloeser, Newfoundland, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Reining, Sr., Miss Reining, Philip Reining, Jr., and Miss Charlotte Reining, of Cherry Ridge.

—The 8:08 Erie morning train from Scranton arrived in Honesdale on Monday on schedule time, bringing with it a large number of passengers. Conductor Abraham Snyder told a Citizen representative that the train was well patronized from Scranton over. "This is only the beginning; when the train is running awhile it will be largely patronized," quoted the conductor.

—Fred Smith, of River street, was arrested on Friday charged with disorderly conduct by his wife and was arraigned before Squire Smith. A hearing of the case was deferred until Saturday afternoon at three o'clock. Saturday afternoon, however, Mrs. Smith failed to appear and the hearing was again postponed until next Saturday. In the meantime the charge may be dropped if Fred Smith decides to quit drinking.

—Frederick Webber and Miss Clara Lippert, both of Honesdale, were united in marriage at six-thirty Thursday evening in St. Mary Magdalen's church. The ceremony was performed by Dr. J. W. Balta of that church in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. After the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the home of Otto Casteck where a reception was held. The young couple will reside on Cottage street.

—A. A. Whalen, local agent for the Prudential Insurance company, received notice on Friday that he has qualified for the company's convention which will be held in Atlantic City from June 20 to the 22, inclusive. Mr. Whalen received his trip on general excellency. He is one of a party of about 20 agents out of 1,500 who have done exceptionally good work since January 1st. This speaks in words of highest praise for our townsman.

—Frederick Zeaman and Mr. Harvitt, both of New York city, and students of the Columbia University, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Katz, the former being a nephew of Mrs. Katz. They are out for a pleasure trip and walked from New York to Honesdale, leaving that city on Monday last. They leave for Lake Como to-morrow and from thence they will go to Binghamton and from that city to Ithaca, traveling the distance on foot.

—Debs, the ex-king of the newsboys, who has made a number of walking reciters in the last few years arrived in Port Jervis Wednesday afternoon on a walk to Minneapolis from New York city in an effort to beat Weston whom he allowed a week's start. Debs started Monday noon from the City Hall in New York and spent Tuesday night in Middletown. Wednesday morning he started for Port Jervis and got lost on the way and was four hours trying to get on the right road. He went to Lackawaxen Thursday and remained there over night. He stopped at the Bauer Inn.

—Hugh McGranaghan, one of Hancock's most widely known business men, was the victim of a probably fatal runaway accident at Equinunk which occurred last Monday afternoon shortly before five o'clock. Jule Wagner, also of Hancock, was with him, but escaped with a number of minor cuts and bruises. The two spent the afternoon on the Delaware fishing and started home about five o'clock. Just after leaving Bleck's hotel the horse they were driving became frightened and ran away despite the efforts of Mr. McGranaghan to control the horse. In making a turn to the right to cross a bridge the carriage skidded and caught the wheel under the guard rail. Both were thrown out with much force. Mr. Wagner was hurled to the ground but only sustained minor injuries. Mr. McGranaghan was hurled against a large maple tree and was unconscious when picked up. It is feared that he sustained concussions of the brain. He remained unconscious several days.

—A board of arbitration composed of W. B. Leshner, C. E. Dodge and T. Y. Boyd, was appointed to hear evidence in the two cases now pending in the courts against Starrucca Borough. The board met Friday morning and after hearing the evidence awarded a verdict in favor of the defendant. There was no evidence to justify an award for the plaintiffs. The first case against the borough of Starrucca was brought by Luta Jane Mead and George L. Mead to recover damages to the amount of $7,000 for injuries received by reason of the failure of the borough of Starrucca to guard a certain bridge within its limits and for this reason Mrs. Mead accompanied by Grace Leonard together with a horse and wagon belonging to Fred Leonard fell from one side of the bridge a distance of about fourteen feet to the rocks of the bed below. Grace Leonard and Fred Leonard also took damages to the amount of $7,000. The plaintiffs have twenty days in which to file an appeal. Mumford & Mumford represented the borough of Starrucca.

—Mrs. Elwin C. Mumford and the Misses Mumford will entertain with cards at the Lyric on Wednesday afternoon.

—A marriage license was issued on Friday to Frances J. O'Neill and Miss Mary O. O'Neill, both of Pleasant Mount.

—Miss Madeline Stephens, of Carbondale, a former resident of this place, is a member of the graduating class of the West Chester State Normal School.

—Miss Elizabeth Lawyer entertained the members of the Five Hundred club at her home Friday evening. Dainty refreshments were served and prizes were won at cards.

—The commencement exercises of St. Mary Magdalen's Graded School will be held next Monday and Tuesday evenings, June 23rd and 24th, at 8 o'clock p. m. at the Church Hall.

—Nathaniel Eggleston has been passing around the cigars for the past two weeks, celebrating the coming into his home of another son. Nat says he's a dandy and weighed 10 pounds when the stork left him. Next.

—The cheese factory at Rileyville which burned on Monday of last week will be rebuilt. It is reported on good authority that the work will begin at once. The building was owned by farmers in that section of the county.

—The Young Ladies' Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church conducted a supper in the chapel of the church Thursday evening and they cleared about $55 above expenses. Strawberry shortcake was the principal item on the menu.

—The property of W. P. Schenck and Giles G. Schenck lying in Texas township, was sold by Sheriff Kimble Friday afternoon at half-past two o'clock at the court house. The property was subject to a judgment of $8,000 held by Homer Greene. W. P. Schenck bid in the property for $10.

—A regular meeting of the Junior Order, No. 880, O. U. A. M., was held in their hall on Friday evening. Thirty candidates for membership were balloted upon. The successful candidates will be initiated into the order on Friday evening, June 27. At this meeting preparations were made for the organization of a life and drum corps.

—While motoring on the old Delaware and Hudson canal a few days since Ralph and Arthur Hoehne, of Lackawaxen, met a horse and rig and while trying to back out of their way the river bank gave away and the auto slid down the embankment. The machine struck a tree and was completely turned over, breaking the body of the car. Both men escaped serious injury.

—The property of S. M. Hauck, consisting of one hundred and thirty-five acres of land in South Canaan township, was sold by Sheriff Kimble at the court house on Friday afternoon at two o'clock. The property was purchased by Leslie M. and Russell Cease, of South Canaan, through Attorney M. E. Simons, for $56. It was subject to a mortgage of $1,500 in The Wayne County Savings Bank.

—Wednesday, June 18, has been set apart as state grange day for farmers' boys, at which time young men from all parts of the state are invited to visit State College to inspect the various departments, particularly the college of agriculture, where numerous interesting experiments are under way. The various railroads of the state have granted reduced rates of fare for the round trip. While the invitation is especially to farmers' boys, all members of the family are invited. Further information may be secured by writing M. S. McDowell, State College, Pa.

—On Wednesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Singer, of Hawley, Pa., the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mabel Singer, to Irving Schneider, of 1046 North Irving avenue, Scranton, took place. Rev. Speaker of the Holy Trinity Lutheran church, of Scranton, officiated. The couple were unattended and the wedding ceremony was witnessed by only Mr. and Mrs. Singer, Miss Esther Singer, William Singer, all of Hawley, and Miss Dena Schewtzer, of Scranton. The nuptial couple returned to Scranton on Saturday where they will reside in the Schewtzer home at 1046 North Irving avenue.

Bolkan Blouse and Summer Waist at Menner & Co. 49e14

Personal Items

Shoemakers' picnic to Lake Lodore August 20.

Grace D. Platt, of Avoca, is the guests of friends in Honesdale.

Miss Elizabeth Lawyer called on Carbondale friends Saturday.

Herbert Benny and George Spencer made Hawley a visit on Sunday.

Miss Marie Bracey is spending a few days at Lakewood, Pa.

Mayor C. A. McCarty was confined to his bed the latter part of last week by illness.

William H. Howard of Allentown, spent Friday and Saturday in this place.

Miss Nellie Brown, of Pittston, is spending a few days in the Maple City.

Charles Weston, of Carbondale, was a guest of relatives in Honesdale over Sunday.

Miss Clara R. Torrey accompanied Elizabeth Hull to her New York city home on Monday.

Miss Gladys Weaver, of Stroudsburg, is a guest of Miss Alice Tallman on Main street.

Kirk Rose, of Carbondale, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. L. O. Rose, on Fourteenth street.

Mrs. David Bodie, of Honesdale, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. G. Lilje.—Forest City News.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Canfield, of Galliee, were the parents of a daughter, born on Sunday, June 8.

Miss Helen Rickert who has been spending some time in Wilkes-Barre and Scranton, is now at home.

George Buerket left Friday morning for West Point to take up his duties at the military academy there.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Saunders, of Carbondale, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Keen on Court street.

Miss Helene Bishop, who has been in Chicago, for the past two years, arrived home Monday evening.

Postmaster M. B. Allen returned Saturday evening from New York City, where he has been the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Rogers, of New York, are guests at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Coe Durland.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Penwarden, daughter, Miss Isabel, and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Dibble motored to Hollisterville on Sunday.

Editor E. D. Lathrop, of Carbondale, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Swoyer on East Street Extension, Sunday.

Buel Dodge, head bookkeeper at the hospital for the criminal insane at Farview, was calling on Honesdale friends on Friday.

Phillip Krantz and sons, Phillip, Jr., and Everett, visited their mother at Moses Taylor hospital on Sunday. Mrs. Krantz is rapidly improving.

Madam DePercin and two daughters, of Orange, N. J., are summering at Elm Place Cottage, near the Elm tree, Mrs. Jessie Seales, proprietress.

Joseph G. Schmidt, of Indian Orchard, Frank Derrick, of Aldenville and R. W. McStraw of Gaiden, were pleasant callers at The office on Monday.

Francis Murtha, of Scranton, is spending a few days in Honesdale. He recently injured his left hand while in his employment, that of railroading.

Frederick L. Krantz, formerly of the Honesdale Footwear company, left Thursday for New York, where he has accepted a position with the United Shoe Machinery company.

Miss Mabel Dexter, of Honesdale, a junior in Dickinson College, was the guest yesterday of the Misses Clara and Lulu Bateson, of Jefferson avenue.—Scranton Truth.

Cashier M. J. Emery of the Ariel National Bank, motored to Honesdale on Friday and was a guest of his brother, Cashier C. A. Emery of the Farmers and Mechanics bank.

William F. Heft returned to Deposit, N. Y., Sunday after spending a two weeks' vacation at his former home here. Mrs. Heft and son, William will extend their stay in Honesdale.

Mrs. A. L. Schuller, daughter Margaret, of Upper Montclair, N. J., Mrs. Carl Schuller, daughter Alma, and Mrs. T. E. Callaway, who have been guests of the former, arrived here Monday afternoon.

COOL, STYLISH AND DAINY Summer Goods

MADE UP READY-TO-WEAR AT MENNER & CO'S Keystone Stores

COMPRIING: Ladies' Ramie, Linen and Ratine Suits.

One Piece Dresses in Persian Lawn and Organdie.

Separate Wash Skirts in Pique, Cords, Flaxons and Linens. Newest shapes direct from designer.

Our Children's Wash Dresses are new in cut and pretty in materials.

House Dresses in new cuts and Washable Fabrics.

The new Silk Waist suitable for wear with suit, and evening dresses are pretty and attractive.

Summer Cool Clothing for Hot Weather Wear at

MENNER & CO'S STORES

For LADIES, MISSES AND CHILDREN

Lyric Friday June 20

BENJ. H. DITTRICH, Lessee and Manager.

DANIEL FROHMAN PRESENTS

MME. Sarah Bernhart An All Star Company in the Great Spectacular Photo-Play

"QUEEN ELIZABETH"

One of the strongest Stories History has ever recorded. In four parts. 4 other reels will be shown.

Prices: Adults 15c., Children 10c. 7 to 10 o'clock